GARDENS

« Greetings »

NATURALLY you are fond of Iris. In presenting this little catalogue it is hoped that it will be a pleasant help to you in selecting new varieties for your garden. The descriptions are made from the blooming plants in most instances and the colors given are as they appear to me, eliminating unfamiliar color terms. Heights are as they grow in this locality from actual measurement. Fortunately this region produces an extremely rugged strain of Iris. We have all the extremes of climate. Last summer there was twenty-eight days the heat exceeded one hundred degrees. With only dry land methods of cultivation and no irrigation at all, my high standard of quality was maintained. Iris thoroughly ripened and matured under these conditions are almost sure to bloom the following spring. Only blooming size rhizomes used in filling orders.

GUARANTEE: This part is intended entirely for the prospective customer who has had no previous dealing with me. You will wonder if this is a reliable, experienced Iris grower. Will they send me the quality of plants I am justly entitled to? Will this be a pleasant transaction handled in a prompt and business like manner? My guarantee is, You Must Be Pleased. If you are not satisfied after opening the package return it to me at my expense. There will be no quibbling over details, and your return postage will be refunded. All plants guaranteed true to name and free from disease. There are no Iris borers in this section.

TERMS: Orders amounting to $2.00 or more will be post-paid. Smaller orders, 15 cents extra. All transportation charges to be paid by the purchaser on foreign orders, Canada included. A small deposit required on local orders placed at blooming time.

SUBSTITUTIONS: I will not substitute unless given permission to do so. However, it is impossible to keep a stock of Iris complete during the entire season. It is both convenient and very satisfactory to name at least one second choice with each order. To encourage this the purchaser may select an Iris of double value in naming a second choice.

FRESH PLANTS: Each order is filled individually with fresh plants and never from stock stored in bins. All rhizomes used are grown in my own field where the most careful methods are employed that all are true to name.

DELIVERY will be made any time after June 15 to suit the purchasers' convenience. Personally I recommend planting between July 15 and October 1. Orders will be filled any time during the season until the ground freezes.

VISITORS: During the blooming season the garden will be open Sundays. Iris are at their best in the mornings. Why not visit the garden when you will enjoy them most?

This cut illustrates the perfect branching habits of this Iris. A Dyke's Medal winner and one of the very finest, light colored varieties in existence.

New Faces in the Iris Family

Among the new varieties being shown, due consideration is given the entire group of bearded Iris. Dwarfs, intermediates and midseason varieties, the finest obtainable.

First, a huge rather dark plicata claimed to be immune to cold weather. Outstanding in every respect. Mr. Ayers the producer, has named this Iris THEODOLINDA. Also from the same producer, VENUS DE MILO a fine white, and PERSIA a dark blue toned Iris of rich and unusual coloring.

From that peer of hybridizers Prof. Andrews, comes RUSTY GOLD and DESERT DAWN. Two blends of exceptional merit.

Two of Dr. Loomis' rich bicolors, EREBIAN and SHIRVAN, made fine growth this past fall.

Two pink varieties, RHADI (Mrs. W. R. Dykes) and TALISMAN (Murrell) are sure to become popular.

From the Cayeux garden in France, comes a blend in a class entirely by itself, PRES. PILKINGTON. Also three dark ones from the same garden. HERNANI, not large but really red. MME. SEROUGE and MEPHISTO, variations in blue purple. Both very rich.

Three of Dr. Kirkland's recent releases, ANDREW JACKSON a large dark colored, rugged variety. His tall blue, BLUE BANNER and a very dark purple, BLACK WINGS are due to bloom.

For the first time Col. Nicholls' Iris will be shown. Included in this group are AUREX a brilliant variegata, NURMAHAL, dark on the Grace Sturtevant type and VALOR, one of the best blue purples. I predict a great future for this Iris. TOKAY a soft pink of lovely coloring. CRYSORO an intermediate yellow of deep clear tone. And BOADECIA, one of those yellow blends we all like so much.

Again the foremost showings this season will be those super Iris of Mr. Jacob Sass'. First in this group comes two early dwarfs. OWAISSA a blue self of a color much needed in this class. To be introduced this season, is a yellow under the name of SOUND MONEY. I believe this is the most outstanding yellow dwarf yet produced. In the intermediate group we have two welcome additions. GOLDEN WEST a very fine yellow and RED ORCHID, the most outstanding really red intermediate. Of the midseason showing JOYCETTE will be mentioned first. A huge red. Tall, of the very best substance and of strong habits. This Iris stands a mighty fine chance of receiving the Dykes Medal in due time. BLUE MONARCH a deep bluish violet self, with height and good habits.

To be introduced this year by Mr. Sass is a fine plicata, MAY HALL. In a class with Los Angeles and San Francisco and standing cold climates much better. Mr. H. P. Sass' GOLDEN LIGHT is also due to bloom for me this year. Really a highlight in the garden picture. A fine name for a fine Iris.

« Early Dwarf Iris »

One of the most interesting groups of the Iris family. Often these little fellows will be seen welcoming the first spring days even before the snow is entirely gone. They should be used liberally in the sunny rock garden and are fine border plants for hardy perennial beds or walks. Blooming period covers about five weeks just ahead of the intermediate group.
